

Dragan Jovanovic Danilov, a recipient of several poetry prizes (Awards: Zmaj, Momo Kapor, Mesa Selimovic, Branko Miljkovic, SANU - Branko Copic Endowment, etc.) participated in the International Poetry Festival in Sidi Bou Said, Tunisia, held from 22-24 June, with the support of the Embassy of Serbia in Tunis, at the recommendation of the Faculty of Philology in Belgrade.

Danilov recited his poetry in Serbian on several occasions, accompanied by traditional Malouf music (a mix of Andalusian and oriental sound) from many of his collections. The translation of poems in French and Arabic is yet another contribution to cultural diversity of the festival of poetry which after five years of existence became one of the most important events of this kind in the Mediterranean basin.

© 2018 Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International license. All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or by any information storage or retrieval system, without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.