

Buenos Aires: Lecture about the Serbian cultural and historical heritage

Sunday, 05 August 2018.

The Embassy of Serbia in Argentina, in cooperation with Professor at the University of Buenos Aires Diego Hernandez Gomez, an expert on the history of the Balkans, organized a lecture about the cultural and historical heritage of Serbia, with focus on the present-day tourist, commercial and political potential of the two countries.

Apart from attending the lecture, the guests of the Embassy in Buenos Aires had the opportunity to see an exhibition devoted to the First World War and to acquaint themselves with the Serbian customs and national costumes.
