

The "Days of Transfiguration", a literary and spiritual event organized by the Serbs in Romania, was officially inaugurated at the Consulate General of the Republic of Serbia in Timișoara, on 17 August 2018. The event, which celebrates its 25th anniversary, aims to cultivate the Serbian language and to preserve the modern Serbian language in the diaspora.

The event was attended by His Grace Bishop Lukijan of Budim and Administrator of the Timișoara Eparchy, President of the Serb Association in Romania Mr. Ognjan Krstic, President of the Timișoara branch of the Writers' Union of Romania Mr. Cornel Ungureanu, President of the Association of Serbian Writers Mr. Radomir Antic, Honorary President of the Serb Association in Romania Mr. Slavomir Gvozdenovic, who is also the chief organizer of the event, and by Consul Ms. Irena Radojicic.

Mr. Matija Beckovic, Mr. Gojko Djogo, Mr. Aleksandar Cotric, as well as the clergy and representatives of the Serb Association in Romania, including prominent Serbs living in Romania, all took part in the event, in addition to other writers and poets from the diaspora and the region.

Timișoara: Twenty-fifth anniversary of the “Days of Transfiguration”, a literary and spiritual event organized Friday, 17 August 2018.