

Zagreb: Promotion of wines of Fruska Gora at the Embassy

Thursday, 25 October 2018.

On 26 October, at the Serbian Embassy in Zagreb, a promotion of the wines produced in Sirmium was organized upon the initiative of the Serbian Embassy and the municipality of Indija. Wineries presented their awarded products, while AirSerbia gave away one air ticket to Belgrade.

Serbian ambassador Mira Nikolic and the president of the municipality of Indija Vladimir Gak hosted the event attended by the members of the Diplomatic Corps, Croatian institutions, businessmen who deal with import and distribution of beverages, and the members of the Serbian community in the Republic of Croatia.

The promotion was an opportunity for representatives of wineries to establish contacts with the importers of alcoholic beverages and distributors from Croatia.
