

Prague: The performance of the "Atelje 212" theatre in the City Library

Saturday, 13 October 2018.

"Atelje 212" theatre had its performance in Prague for the first time, thanks to the support of the Embassy of the Republic of Serbia, the Serbian Cultural Society "Radost" and "Organization of Students Abroad". The play "Coffee and cigarettes - greetings from Belgrade", directed by Mia Knezevic, was performed in the big hall of the City Library, on October 13th, and the audience was addressed by Ambassador Vera Mavrić and Director of the "Atelje 212" theatre Branimir Brstina. A day later, monodrama "The Bridge over the Drina" by Tihomir Stanic was performed in the City Library.
