

Ambassador of Serbia to Brazil Veljko Ladic granted an interview to Brazilian Radio Senate . The program entitled "The war that changed the world" was devoted to 100th anniversary since the end of the World War I.

Our Ambassador explained the historical context prior to WWI, the events that led to the war – assassination, ultimatum, the causes and true motives, Serbian huge losses in the war and the circumstances conducive to the creation of the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes.

The program was broadcast by 23 national stations in 13 federal states in three installments - on 12, 13 and 14 November including on the weekend of 17 and 18 November.