

Consul General Branislava Perin and "Jumko" General Manager Branislav Trajkovic presented this Serbian company at the Medical Equipment Fair, held in Düsseldorf, on 14 November.

"Jumko" was the guest of the International lodge "Smart textiles, medical clothing", at the booth of the Ministry of Economy of North Rhine Westphalia, which hosted about 30 German and foreign companies.

The visitors were informed that it was one of the leading textile companies in Serbia, which, apart from the exports of thread and yarn to Germany, makes working, medical, police and military uniforms that are also exported to the United Kingdom and develops new textile fabrics.
