

Fazana: National Minorities Festival held

Saturday, 07 September 2019.

Consul General Goran Petrovic attended the "To Fazana with Love" National Minorities Festival and in his welcoming speech thanked the Mayor for the assistance Fazana provided to the Serbian National Minority Council and added that the number of participants increased, indicating that the event had become traditional.

The festival was held for the seventh time on September 7 in the hall of the Multimedia Center in Fazana. In addition to the hosts of the Ulika Cultural and Artistic Society in Fazana, folklore ensembles of national minorities and the academic society "Kolo" of the Serbian minority in Koper, Slovenia, performed.

The festival is organized by the Council of Serbian National Minorities of the Municipality of Fazana and the Coordination of Serbs in Istria, in cooperation with organizations of other national minorities, with the support of the Municipality and the Tourist Board of Fazana.
