

Ambassador Vladimir Maric met India's new Minister of External Affairs Vellamvelly Muraleedharan and discussed with him ways and means to promote the economic cooperation between Serbia and India. The Ambassador highlighted Serbia's potentials in terms of film industry and tourism, emphasizing that Serbia abolished visas for Indian nationals, thus facilitating travel for Indian nationals wishing to visit our country.

Ambassador Maric thanked the new Indian Minister of External Affairs for the support extended by India to Serbia in international institutions in connection with Kosovo and Metohija.
