

The Embassy of Serbia organized the exhibition "Woman's Face of Serbia in the Great War" from 18 July to 12 September at the National Library of Argentina. Magazine "Notebook", published by the National Library and the Ministry of Culture, ran an article presenting this exhibition in which Ambassador Jela Bacovic spoke about the role of women in the First World War.

On the occasion of the end of the exhibition, the president of the Association "Restoration of Tradition" Ezekiel Toti gave a lecture on historical figures and humanism in the First World War. His presentation focused on the role played by the Italian Navy and the House of Savoy in rescuing Serb refugees in World War I.
