

Channel 5 of the Iranian state TV aired an interview with Ambassador Dragan Todorovic, which lasted around 50 minutes and was conducted in Persian. The questions of famous Iranian journalist Abdullah Abdi mostly focused on bilateral cooperation between Serbia and Iran, some regional problems as well as the priorities of Serbian foreign policy.

In addition, they also discussed life in Iran, well-known Iranian cultural and historical landmarks, old and contemporary writers as well as Islam, especially the Shia denomination predominant in Iran and many other similarities between the two countries.