

Vienna: "Days of Serbia and Srpska"

Friday, 04 October 2019.

The event entitled "Days of Serbia and Srpska", co-organized by the Embassy of Serbia, Office of Republika Srpska in Austria and the Association of Serbian Clubs, was officially launched on 4 October with cultural and art programs staged in Kursalon Hübner Music Hall in Vienna.

Serbia's Acting Assistant Foreign Minister Aleksandar Jovanovic made an introductory statement recalling cultural, historical and political ties between Belgrade and Vienna. The program featured renowned opera singers of the National Theater - Jadranka Jovanovic, Jasmina Trumbetas-Petrovic and Dejan Maksimovic accompanied by the Banja Luka Philharmonic. Cultural Artistic Society "Mokranjac" and "Branko Radicevic" from Vienna and Cultural Artistic Society "Una" from Novi Sad also performed in the cultural segment.

Vienna: "Days of Serbia and Srpska"

Friday, 04 October 2019.

Special Display Stage and Separation with a limited edition plays by Belgrade and Barga Luka the copyright is reserved for the author and the publisher. All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or by any information storage and retrieval system, without the prior written permission of the publisher.