

Chicago: Representing Serbia at the Marathon

Tuesday, 15 October 2019.

Consul-Gérant Milan Varadinovic, Director of the Belgrade Marathon Dejan Nikolic and Srdjan Copic of TOB represented Serbia at the famous Chicago Marathon, attended by about 46,000 runners from 140 countries, one third of whom were from abroad.

Serbia is also represented at the back-to-back Sports and Healthy Living Fair with its booth and media-based "presentation of sister cities" including Belgrade, as Belgrade and Chicago are twin cities, as well as airports Nikola Tesla in Belgrade and O'Hare in Chicago.

All our representatives have made statements to this effect on local media .
