

Zagreb: Presentation of Serbian Wineries at the Embassy

Tuesday, 22 October 2019.

Four well-known Serbian wineries - "Kovacevic" from Irig, "Whisper" from Novi Slankamen, "Vista Hill" from Sid and "Temet" from Jagodina, presented their products at the Serbian Embassy, on 17 October. The presentation of wines was assisted by the Municipality of Indjija, a partner of the project.

Ambassador Mira Nikolic emphasized that the presentation was an opportunity to show to the public the finest wines originating from Serbia and to discuss how to make those wines available in the shops in Croatia.

Zagreb: Presentation of Serbian Wineries at the Embassy

Tuesday, 22 October 2019.

In addition to guests from the diplomatic corps and public life, the presentation was also attended by Croatian wine distributors, as well as by representatives of the Association of Winemakers and journalists.