

Berlin: Traditional Music Concert at the Embassy

Saturday, 30 November 2019.

The vocal group "Libero" from Leskovac performed at the Serbian Embassy in Berlin on 29 November. The performance of the group, made up of nine male vocalists, featured the most famous Serbian traditional songs such as "There Far Away", "Serbian Woman", "The Tear of Kosovo" and others. "Libero" was created 9 years ago with the idea to preserve polyphonic male singing "a cappella" style and to popularize traditional musical heritage.
