

On 9 January, Ambassador Katarina Lalic Smajevic was elected academician by the Board of Ambassadors of Spain's Diplomatic School. News on the Diplomatic School's traditional annual awards ceremony was published in the electronic version of the Spanish daily newspaper "La Razon" and magazine "Hola" . The Diplomatic School of the Kingdom of Spain promotes the country's diplomatic activity in its magazine "Diplomacy". On the occasion, in addition to Spanish and foreign Ambassadors, awards were received by Alfonso Dastis, former Spanish Minister of Foreign Affairs, and current Ambassador to Italy who addressed the attendees in the name of the honorary members and his own.