

Ambassador Stefan Tomasevic granted an interview to Romanian national tourist television "Travel Mix" presenting the history of Serbia, tourist destinations, Serbian cuisine, festivals and most prominent historic figures. Ambassador Tomasevic also spoke about the similarity between Serbia and Romania and pointed to several centuries-long friendship between the two peoples and invited the citizens of Romania to visit Serbia, singling out tourism as an important link and a development chance for both countries.