

The newly appointed Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia to NATO, Branimir Filipović, today presented his credentials to NATO Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg. During the courteous meeting, they discussed the current state of relations between the Republic of Serbia and NATO and the prospects for further development of partnership cooperation.