

The trilateral meeting of Ministers of Foreign Affairs of Serbia, Italy and Albania, planned for 9 January 2018, has been called off due to the illness of Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs Angelino Alfano.

The three sides are in communication in order that the meeting be rescheduled at an earliest possible date.