

Minister Dacic receives national recognition “Captain Misa Anastasijevic”

Tuesday, 10 April 2018.

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic received today, on the Matica Srpska premises in Novi Sad, "Captain Misa Anastasijevic" National Recognition for his contribution to the affirmation of the Republic of Serbia.

At the official ceremony of granting the recognition, the Serbian Foreign Minister expressed his satisfaction over the fact that Serbian diplomatic endeavours to preserve the country's national and state interests had been recognized, underlining that, at the same time, the recognition went to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Serbian diplomacy for their work.

Minister Dacic expressed particular pleasure that the ceremony took place at Matica Srpska, one of the oldest institutions of Serbian culture.

"Captain Misa Anastasijevic" recognitions have been granted for more than 15 years to individuals, entrepreneurs and institutions most successful in contributing to the affirmation of Serbia's performance in economic and social areas.
