First Deputy Prime Minister of the Republic of Serbia and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dačić received Ambassador of India in the Republic of Serbia Narinder Chauhan on a farewell visit.

On this occasion, Minister Dačić thanked Ambassador Chauhan for a very successful and dynamic cooperation during her term in Belgrade.

Both sides noted that the bilateral relations were friendly, highly developed and that there was a strong interest in promoting them further, as confirmed in the meeting with Indian officials during a recent visit of Minister Dačić to India, in early May this year.

The Indian Ambassador thanked Minister Dačić for his warm hospitality and an excellent cooperation with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the institutions of the Republic of Serbia.

They noted that there existed all conditions to intensify the political dialogue and promote bilateral cooperation between the two countries in all areas.
