

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic met the Head of OSCE Mission to Kosovo (OMIK), Ambassador Jan Braathu today.

They discussed activities of the Mission and issues of importance for monitoring the situation on the ground.

Both sides recognized the importance of OMIK activity in line with its mandate and status neutrality, including the need for consistent and systematic monitoring of the respect for the human rights and communities, and for improving OMIK activities towards that end.
