

The First Deputy Prime Minister of the Republic of Serbia and Minister of Foreign Affairs, Ivica Dačić, met in Moscow today with the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation, Sergey Lavrov.

Ministers Dačić and Lavrov both stressed that the level of trust and high dynamics of contacts between Russia and Serbia show that relations between the two countries are being developed constantly and productively.

The current issues of bilateral cooperation were also discussed at the meeting, as well as the promotion of bilateral relations in all areas and mutual support in international organizations.

Minister Dačić expressed gratitude to the Russian Federation for its firm and consistent support to the territorial integrity and sovereignty of the Republic of Serbia.

At the end of the meeting, Minister Lavrov gave the head of Serbian diplomacy a football jersey of the national team of the Russian Federation. Minister Dačić thanked him and wished Russian national team every success at the World Cup.
