

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic welcomed this morning the Secretary of State of the Holy See, Cardinal Pietro Parolin, at "Nikola Tesla" Airport.

Minister Dacic wished Cardinal Parolin a welcome and expressed great pleasure at his first visit to Serbia. Minister Dacic reiterated that the visit was very important for Serbia and that, at the same time, it was an opportunity to promote the political dialogue on top level.

The State Secretary of the Holy See, Cardinal Parolin, will meet today with President of Serbia Aleksandar Vucic, Prime Minister Ana Brnabic and Head of Serbian Diplomacy Ivica Dacic.