

During the official visit by President of Ukraine Petro Poroshenko to Serbia, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic had a separate bilateral meeting with Ukrainian Foreign Minister Pavlo Klimkin.

In the meeting, the officials discussed current bilateral issues and prospects for their promotion. Minister Dacic expressed his gratitude for the principled position of Ukraine concerning non-recognition of the unilaterally declared independence of "Kosovo".

The Serbian Foreign Minister invited Minister Klimkin to make a bilateral visit to Serbia, which the Ukrainian Foreign Minister accepted, reciprocating an invitation to Minister Dacic to pay a visit to Kyiv.

After the meeting, both Ministers signed an Agreement mutually extending stay without a visa for holders of ordinary passports from 30 to 90 days.
