

In the margins of the 73rd Session of the UN General Assembly, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic met today with OSCE Secretary General Thomas Greminger.

In the substantive talks, the OSCE Secretary General informed Minister Dacic about the course of preparations for the upcoming 25th OSCE Ministerial Council in Milan. Furthermore, he expressed thanks for the support offered to the activity of the OSCE Mission in Belgrade and for the intensified dialogue the Mission engaged in with Serbian institutions.

The Serbian Foreign Minister was pleased with the work done and results achieved in cooperation with the OSCE.

The collocutors also exchanged views on all issues of interest for the activity of the OSCE and for Serbia's engagement within the Organization towards the enhancement of cooperation.

The OSCE Secretary General offered his full support to the Belgrade-Pristina dialogue and efforts to reach a sustainable solution by political means.
