

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today the delegations of the towns of Hurghada and Jagodina, headed by Ahmed Abdullah, the Governor of the Red Sea Governorate and Dragan Markovic, the Mayor of Jagodina.

Minister Dacic expressed pleasure at the signing of the Agreement on Cooperation and Town Twinning between Jagodina and Hurghada.

He assessed that the partner relations between the Republic of Serbia and the Arab Republic of Egypt were traditionally very good and expressed expectation that the signing of the mentioned Agreement would contribute to the overall development of relations between the two countries, particularly in the areas of tourism and economic cooperation.
