

On the second day of his stay in Seville, First Deputy Prime Minister of the Republic of Serbia and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic had a meeting with Vanessa Bernad González, head of the Andalusian Government's Trade Promotion Agency (Extenda Junta de Andalusia).

In the talks, the collocutors particularly focused on the promotion of economic cooperation and the importance of an exchange of trade delegations.

The Serbian Foreign Minister underlined in particular favourable business environment for attracting foreign investments in Serbia and stressed that friendly relations between Serbia and Spain offered numerous possibilities for the development of comprehensive ties, to the mutual satisfaction.