

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic sent a message of condolences to the family of Stanko Radmilovic.

"Please accept my heartfelt condolences following the passing of the former Prime Minister of Serbia Stanko Radmilovic.

Being the Prime Minister of Serbia at the time when the first multiparty elections were called in all republics of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia was not an easy task.

Although his voluntary, continuous work on the economic stabilization of the country during turbulent times is little known, it is precisely how I will remember him - as an economist who was selflessly and relentlessly dedicated to his country, even when he was no longer its Prime Minister", reads the condolence message by Minister Dacic.
