

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic sent his Christmas greetings to Belgrade Archbishop Stanislav Hocevar, dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church and all Serbian citizens celebrating according to the Gregorian calendar, wishing that it be celebrated with joy and faith in a better future for everyone in Serbia.

"On behalf of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and on my own behalf, I congratulate you the great holiday of Nativity, wishing you to celebrate it in joy, prosperity, love and harmony amongst your loved ones.

May this holiday, celebrating birth and joy, bring us all faith in togetherness, solidarity and mutual appreciation, showing us the path of true forgiveness and respect.

I believe that this festive season will empower us to face all the challenges ahead of us and persevere in building a better and a safer future for us all", reads the message from Minister Dacic.
