

The Embassy of the Republic of Serbia in Argentina organized a ceremony at which First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic received a title of honorary guest of Buenos Aires.

This is the third recognition bestowed by the Assembly of Buenos Aires on Minister Dacic, this time at the proposal of the First Deputy Chairman of the Buenos Aires Provincial Assembly Francisco Quintana.

Several years-long friendship between Minister Dacic and the City of Belgrade, on the one hand, and representatives of Buenos Aires, on the other hand, resulted, among other things, in naming a square in central Buenos Aires the “Square of the Republic of Serbia”.

Minister Dacic thanked for this recognition and emphasized that it was yet another proof of excellent relations between Serbia and Argentina. He invited the city administration and representatives of the city of Buenos Aires to visit Belgrade and enable us to reciprocate their hospitality.

The reception hosted by the Embassy on this occasion was attended by officials of the city of Buenos Aires as well as by other distinguished citizens from the Argentinian capital, Bishop Cyril, and the representatives of the Argentinian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Worship, diplomatic corps and our diaspora.

{youtube}unkwfbcYjf8{/youtube}

Minister Dacic received a title of honorary guest of Buenos Aires

Saturday, 23 March 2019.

{joomplucat:1611 limit=4|columns=4}