

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia met with President of Cuba Miguel Díaz-Canel in the margins of the Association of Caribbean States summit.

In the friendly and cordial talk, the Serbian Minister and President of Cuba assessed as positive the current bilateral cooperation – both political and economic, at the same time noting great potential for further development.

The two officials confirmed mutual support on various questions of importance to both countries.

The President of Cuba voiced his readiness to visit Serbia in the upcoming period.