

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received today a courtesy call from the Ambassador of the Republic of Slovenia in Belgrade, Iztok Jarc, on the occasion of his assumption of duties.

The talk was an opportunity for the collocutors to underline that cooperation between the two countries was dynamic and that the bilateral relations were at the highest level since the establishment of diplomatic relations.

Topics of particular importance were discussed, such as economic relations, European integration, and other areas of joint interest.

The Serbian Foreign Minister voiced his hope that the Republic of Slovenia would continue to offer support to Serbia on its European path.

Ambassador Iztok Jarc stressed that the cooperation with the institutions of the Republic of Serbia, with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in particular, was excellent. He confirmed the readiness of the Republic of Slovenia to give necessary assistance to Serbia's EU accession process.
