

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic met today with the Ambassador of the Slovak Republic to Serbia, Mrs. Dagmar Repčková.

Minister Dacic wished success to the Slovak Republic which this year assumed Chairmanship-in-Office of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE), emphasizing that Serbia as Chairman-in-Office of the Organization in 2015, attached great importance to OSCE activities. He pointed out that Serbia supported the activities of the Slovak Chairmanship, particularly the reform of security sector advocated by the Slovak Republic.

The meeting also addressed joint activities during the Slovak Chairmanship some of which are planned to take place in Belgrade as well as the anticipated visit of Slovak Foreign Minister and OSCE Chairperson-in-Office Miroslav Lajčák to Belgrade.

It was jointly noted that the bilateral relations between the two countries were very good, with no open questions and that this trend should continue.
