

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic received today Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the People's Republic of China Chen Bo.

Both sides expressed satisfaction with the overall outstanding relations between Serbia and China which were at the highest level ever.

It was assessed that the forthcoming participation of Serbian Prime Minister Ana Brnabic in the Eighth Summit of Heads of Governments of CEE countries and China in Dubrovnik on 11 and 12 April as well as Serbian President Aleksandar Vucic's participation in the Second Belt and Road Forum for International Cooperation in Beijing, from 25 to 27 April 2019, would contribute to further strengthening of political relations between the two countries.
