

Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation Sergey Lavrov decorated Ambassador of the Republic of Serbia in Moscow Slavenko Terzic with the Honorary Medal of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Russian Federation for advancing mutual cooperation.

The medal-awarding ceremony took place at the Russian MFA's villa.

Minister Lavrov used carefully picked words to describe Ambassador Terzic and his extraordinary qualities, which he put in the service of representing his country.

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic and members of the Serbian delegation were among those who attended the ceremony.
