

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic met today with Ambassador of the Republic of Azerbaijan Eldar Hasanov.

In the talks, both sides expressed pleasure at the excellent overall bilateral relations between Serbia and Azerbaijan and discussed prospects for their further development. In this context, they considered the promotion of bilateral economic and cultural cooperation as well as cooperation between the two countries in international organizations.

{youtube}SMbbSg8yZI4{/youtube}

A shared interest was conveyed for the continuation of the regular political dialogue and realization of visits in the period ahead.

{joomplucat:1642 limit=4|columns=4}