

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic paid an official visit to the Kingdom of Eswatini today, where he had talks with Prime Minister Ambrose Diamini and Foreign Minister Thuli Dladla.

In the meeting, the two collocutors underlined traditional and friendly relations between the two countries dating back to the period when the country gained its independence in 1968.

{youtube}z5QJjATrliw{/youtube}

They discussed concrete forms of cooperation between the two countries, especially in the fields of education, agriculture as well as the military and medical cooperation.

{youtube}46UMbSHY74k{/youtube}

Special significance was attached to the upcoming visits on high and top levels.

{joomplucat:1654 limit=4|columns=4}