

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic congratulated today Ramadan Bayram to Grand Mufti of the Islamic Community of Serbia Sead Nasufovic, President of the Meshihat of the Islamic Community Mufti Mevlud Dudic, and to all Serbian citizens of the Islamic faith.

"I am pleased to congratulate Ramadan Bayram to you and to all members of the Islamic community. May you spend it in peace, harmony and joy, surrounded by your loved ones.

Bayram reminds us again and again of the timeless values of mutual respect, appreciation, unity and fellowship. May this holiday of hope and belief in a better tomorrow remind us to find the strength to forgive each other and to respond to the challenges of our time, in order for our country and our society to enjoy a safe future", reads the congratulatory message signed by Serbian Foreign Minister Dacic.
