

Political consultations between the Foreign Ministries of Serbia and Switzerland were held in Bern, on 5 June 2019. Serbian delegation was headed by State Secretary of Foreign Ministry Nemanja Stevanovic. His host was Kristina Marti Lang, Deputy State Secretary of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Switzerland.

In a substantive and friendly talks, the two collocutors concluded that the bilateral relations between the two countries were very good and diverse, and that the priorities for future cooperation were preservation of the pace of political dialogue both on the highest and top levels, further development of economic cooperation, especially attracting new Swiss investments, cooperation in the fields of education, innovation, digitization.

Views on the situation in the Western Balkan region, relations between Serbia and Switzerland with the European Union and on other important issues were exchanged.

Die Volkswirtschaft, 06. Juni 2019, Seite 10. Erwin Bollinger, Co-Chair of the meeting