

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic, in the margins of the 49th General Assembly of the OAS held in Medellin, Colombia, met with the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Trinidad and Tobago, Denis Mozes.

In a friendly and substantive conversation, the two Ministers exchanged views on the internal political processes in the two countries, as well as on current foreign policy developments in Latin America and Europe.

{youtube}sLnvx43YPqs{/youtube}

Minister Dacic briefed the chief of diplomacy of Trinidad and Tobago on the strategic performance of the Republic of Serbia towards friendly states that strongly support the principles of international law and territorial principles and share the same views and values as the Republic of Serbia.

Both Ministers agreed to continue joint work on advancing cooperation in all areas of common interest, to continue to support each other in international organizations, as well as to continue regular contacts and exchange of visits at a high level.