

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic today received a farewell call from Branislav Micunovic, Ambassador of Montenegro to the Republic of Serbia.

During the conversation, which took place in a friendly and constructive atmosphere, the current state of bilateral relations between the Republics of Serbia and Montenegro had been considered and the hope expressed that they would be further improved in the forthcoming period.

Minister Dacic thanked Ambassador Micunovic for a good long-term cooperation, and wished him happiness and success in his further work.

At the end of the meeting, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic and Ambassador of Montenegro to the Republic of Serbia Branislav Micunovic signed an Agreement between the Government of the Republic of Serbia and the Government of Montenegro on the gainful activity of certain dependents of members of their diplomatic and consular missions.

{joomplucat:1684 limit=4|columns=4}