

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dačić sent his greetings to the Grand Mufti of the Islamic Community of Serbia Sead Nasufović , president of Meshihat of the Islamic community of Serbia, Mufti Mevludin Dudić and to all Muslim believers celebrating Eid al-Adha.

„On behalf of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia and on my own behalf, I have the pleasure to extend my greetings to all celebrating Eid al-Adha, and I wish you to celebrate this holiday in peace, harmony and joy amongst your loved ones.

May the upcoming days of celebration remind us that we are masters of our own destinies and that we can be miracle workers ourselves, on a daily basis. Lest we forget that it is only through the power of our will, and a firm commitment to fighting for the values we believe in, that we can make a contribution towards a better, more secure and successful world.

Let the feast days ahead bring us all good health, joy, happiness to our families, and wisdom in order to be able to respond together to the challenges of our time", reads the message of Minister Dačić.
