

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic met with the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Dr. Ibrahim bin Abdulaziz Al-Assaf on the sidelines of the 74th session of the UN General Assembly in New York.

At the cordial meeting, the two Ministers discussed bilateral and multilateral cooperation and further development of the friendly relations between the Republic of Serbia and Saudi Arabia.

They agreed that the relations could be further promoted by the exchange of high- and top-level visits. They highlighted the opportunities for further strengthening cooperation in the fields of economy, trade, education, tourism, medicine, etc.

{youtube}BSRWfkXspGE{/youtube}