

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic participated yesterday at the Ministerial Meeting of the Central European Initiative in New York.

This year's traditional informal meeting of the CEI member states was organized by Italy, who chairs the Central European Initiative, and was hosted by Italian Foreign Minister Luigi Di Maio.

Following the meeting, the Head of Serbian Diplomacy had a short conversation with Italy's new Foreign Minister Luigi Di Maio.