

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic today met with Minister of Foreign Affairs of Grenada Charles David on the sidelines of the 74th session of the UN General Assembly.

In a very cordial and meaningful meeting, the two Ministers gave high marks to the development of bilateral relations and their future prospects. They highlighted education, sports and agriculture as areas that should be devoted special attention by the two sides.

{youtube}fOAohU7YYBA{/youtube}

The two Foreign Ministers had an in-depth exchange of views on the current political and economic trends in the regions of the Western Balkans and the Caribbean and agreed that the two countries continue to support each other and cooperate at the multilateral level.

The Foreign Minister of Grenada invited Minister Dacic to pay a return visit to Grenada.