

Relations between Serbia and Slovenia are at a high level

Tuesday, 17 September 2019.

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic received a delegation of the Parliamentary Friendship Group with Serbia in the Slovenian Parliament, led by Group President Predrag Bankovic, who is on a return visit to the National Assembly of the Republic of Serbia.

In the talks that evolved in a friendly and constructive atmosphere, the two sides discussed a number of bilateral issues, especially emphasizing that relations between Serbia and Slovenia were at a high level.

The meeting also discussed the possibilities for deepening economic ties, as well as the issues related to the European integration of the Republic of Serbia, succession, developments in the region and other topics of common interest.
