

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia, Ivica Dacic, met with Zimbabwean Minister of Local Government and Public Works July Moyo, on the sidelines of a Ministerial meeting of the Non-Aligned Movement in Baku.

Minister Dacic pointed to the traditional friendly relations between the two countries, noting that Zimbabwe had always supported Serbia. He recalled that in the past, in addition to good political relations, there was a very developed cooperation, especially in the fields of education, construction, military cooperation, etc.

Minister Moyo agreed that work should be done to restore friendly relations, indicating that he had personally cooperated with Serbian companies in Zimbabwe. Minister Moyo called for Serbian companies to re-engage in business in Zimbabwe.
