

After his meeting with Foreign Minister of Azerbaijan Elmar Mammadyarov, First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ivica Dacic today signed an e-book opened on the occasion of 100th anniversary of the Azerbaijani diplomatic service.

"It is a great honor for me to recall on the occasion of this important anniversary of the diplomatic service of the Republic of Azerbaijan that our two states have been connected by sincere friendship and cooperation.

The relations between Serbia and Azerbaijan are marked by dynamic cooperation in many areas – intensive political dialogue at high and highest levels, including in the field of economy, culture and sports.

The understanding between the two states is primarily based on the respect of territorial integrity and international law.

Expressing the hope that our relations will continue to develop to the mutual benefit of our two peoples, I would like to once again congratulate you this landmark anniversary", the Serbian Foreign Minister wrote.
