

First Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Serbia Ivica Dacic received a farewell call from Mr. Iztok Jarc, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Slovenia to the Republic of Serbia.

In the talks, they discussed the current situation in the two countries' bilateral relations and expressed belief that they would continue to develop to the mutual satisfaction.

Minister Dacic thanked the Ambassador for his brief but well-regarded engagement, wishing him success in the discharge of his new duties. Furthermore, the Minister conveyed expectation of the Serbian side that the Republic of Slovenia would soon select a new candidate for the post of Ambassador to Serbia, confident that an equally fruitful cooperation would be further maintained with the new Head of Mission, too.
